Faculty

The administration and faculty of the Career Development Institute are specialists, with hands-on experience in criminal justice, law enforcement, health, training, counter-terrorism and business. Believing it is not enough to be an expert in a field, we also require that our entire faculty have developed the highest quality of teaching skills and that each instructor work with you to achieve your mastery of content.

The principal officer at Career Development Institute is John C. Saccenti.

Mr. Saccenti attended Fordham University where he received his Bachelors in Education, Masters of Science in Education and Political Science as well as his Educational Specialist Degree.

After service as an Army officer and special assignments with the FBI, Mr. Saccenti served as a teacher and administrator before working with the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice. Before his retirement from that agency, his primary responsibility was the development of all Basic Law Enforcement Training. His work included the design and writing of the Basic Course for Investigators, the redesign and writing of the Basic Course for Police Officers and other major basic and advanced law enforcement courses.

Mr. Saccenti served as President of the National Association of Local Boards of Health and advised the US Surgeon General and the White House on public health policy. He has served as a consultant to the Office of the Attorney General, Office of Counter-Terrorism. He currently serves as a consultant to the United States Department of Justice, Office of Victims of Crime. Mr Saccenti is also available as a consultant to eligible organizations through grants offered by the Department of Justice.

Mr. Saccenti is a nationally known speaker on public health, law enforcement and training development and management. Mr. Saccenti is the author of many articles on both law enforcement training and public health and served as an adjunct professor at the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey and Bergen County College.

Who We Are

The Career Development Institute provides a wide variety of training programs for professionals who seek career enhancement, change, personal growth or the latest skills and information available in their profession.

CDI's Law Enforcement Education Group works with Police Agencies and Police Academies to deliver a wide variety of advanced courses aimed at law enforcement professionals. We deliver courses at sites selected by you as well as at centralized locations.

Our Public Sector Education Group delivers high quality training programs designed for municipal government, emergency services, health and public health officials, the legal profession and public school administration and staff.

On the national level our Corporate Education Group specializes in programs that meet the training needs of today's corporations through courses ranging from Counter-Terrorism Awareness and Fundamentals to Presentation Design and Delivery.

Every program is tailored to the individual needs of our clients. We are able to customize training for any setting and will bring the expertise of our faculty to your site to meet your specific training needs.

Services

Course Design and Development

We have the capability of designing training programs from roll call training to multi-day programs that meet your specific training needs. Our training specialists will work with you to identify your key training needs and objectives and to customize a program to meet those objectives. We can conduct a task analysis to assist in identifying those needs and can either deliver the training or package it so that it is ready for your trainers to present.

Consultation Services

Whether it be course design, identification of training needs or individual skill areas we can assist your organization at every level to achieve your goals. While we presently serve as consultants to the New Jersey Office of the Attorney General and the United States Department of Justice, we also are equally at home working with local agencies and private corporations. The development of targeted curricula to meet your needs is one of our specialties.
