

PTC Certified Humane Law Enforcement Officer Waiver Training for Police and County Investigators Cape May County Police Academy March 12-15, 2019

In order to hold the position of Humane Law Enforcement Officer all police officers and county investigators must be certified by the Police Training Commission. This four day training program meets the waiver requirements established by the Police Training Commission for Police Officers and County Investigators who have been appointed as County or Municipal Humane Law Enforcement Officers.

This course content covers the following topics:

Role and Responsibility of a HLEO, ACO, and the Departments of Agriculture, Wildlife and Health, Cults and Animal Cruelty, Blood Sports -Dog and Cock Fighting including RICO Prosecutions, Animal Cruelty Statutes N.J.S.A. Title 4, Civil Matters, Animal Cruelty Investigations, Observation and Perception, Identifying, Collecting and Preserving Evidence, Rules of Evidence, Search of Buildings and Grounds, Veterinarian and Other Reports, Voluntary Surrender of Animals, Animal Hoarding, Animal Behavior and Traits Including Why Animals Lash Out, Common Equipment and Pet First Aid.

The 4 day course, PTC Certified Humane Law Enforcement Officer Waiver Course for Police and County investigators, will be held at the Cape May County Police Academy located at 4 Moore Cape May Courthouse from March 12 through 15, 2019. Classes will be held from 9:00AM to 5:00PM each day. The cost of the course is $389.00 per person.

Register online at <http://www.cmcpoliceacademy.com/>

Questions relating to registration can be directed to The Cape May County Police Academy at 609 465 1134.

In addition, agencies must submit a PTC-15 Waiver of Training Request, <https://www.state.nj.us/lps/dcj/njptc/pdf/ptc15.pdf> to the PTC prior to enrolling all appointee's in the course. When submitting a PTC-15 for a retired officer, please include a letter from the agency of retirement which states the officer retired in good standing and date of retirement.

Purchase orders should be made payable to Career Development Institute, PO Box 5024, Kendall Park NJ. 08824 at the time of registration

For further information regarding payment, certification and course content please contact:

Career Development Institute
1-732-821-6997 www.cditraining.org